Summary of 2023:

The Norwegian Chinese Chamber of Commerce experienced another energetic year in 2023. We noticed increased enthusiasm of business collaboration and opportunities between China and Norway. Due to complexities of the global market, challenges in climate change, the NCCC has during the year focused more on topics of Green Economy Development, Global Energy Transition and Global Supply Chain. NCCC participated again as co-organizer in the 6th CIIE – the China International Import Expo in Shanghai after 3 years “Covid” lock down in China, also for preparing a stronger participating in the 7th CIIE 2024, when China Norway celebrate the 70th anniversary of Diplomatic relations.

NCCC has maintained it's high activity level of facilitating Norwegian-Chinese business relations in 2023 in accordance with our mission and vision.

In 2023, a total of 401 persons attended NCCC's four Members' Meetings and one co-organized Members' Meeting.

Topics we have focused on at our 5 meetings in 2023 include:

- NCCC Co-organized Members' Meeting: China-Norway Thematic Seminar “The 20th CPC National Congress and China's Development in a Global Perspective”
- NCCC Members' Meeting: “CHINA in 2023 - Outlook & Opportunities”
